

About Us

In the beginning...

After working seven years for the Internal Revenue Service as a revenue agent, Antonio Gomez Jr. resigned from the IRS and started his own practice. In December 1978 Gomez Bookkeeping in Hanford opened its doors for the very first time. The business rapidly grew from one office and one employee, to eight employees in two offices. We now offer a wide range of tax related services, and our employees speak English, Spanish and Portuguese.
